Greetings

Thanking you very much for your kind respond. We have published 03 Volumes which are comprised of 37 articles. In those articles, if we narrow down the scope of these article then more than 30 articles are purely of Political Science with sub domain of International Politics, National Politics, Regional Politics, Good Governance and Foreign Policy. Moreover, if you go through the authors' detail, then most of them are the Professors/Scholars of Political Science and IR. The abstract strength was also tried to be below than 150 words. For your convenience I am sending the PDF copies of the published Issues one by one via separate mails. You are kindly requested to revisit our published scripts and oblige us by abstracting into the esteemed IPSA.

Dear Sir,

Thank you for your continuing interest in coverage by the Abstracts, now for the Global Regional Review. We have examined published issues and regrettably must conclude that, despite its qualities, it does not come within the scope of the International Political Science Abstracts.

Respectfully,
